

Thursday, June 18

8.30-9.00	Entrance hallway: Welcome coffee	Entrance hallway: Welcome coffee
	Grote Vergaderzaal	Tapijtenzaal
9.00-10.45	Panel: Wars and Revolutions Benoit Beucher (Université Paris Cité): War as Spectacle: Stage Performances and French Colonial Expansion South of the Sahara (1860s–1900s) Moreira da Silva (University of Cambridge): Enlightenment and Revolution in São Tomé and Príncipe (1787-1820) Ouro-Agoro Djamilou (Université de Lomé): L'effort de Guerre du Marabout Seydou Nourou Tall en Afrique Noire Francophone: Parcours et Influences au Togo à Partir des Archives Coloniales (1939-1945) Stacey Hynd (University of Exeter): 'We are kadogos, not child soldiers': Contested Understandings of Children and Youth in African Conflicts, c. 1970-2000s	Panel: Trade, Exchange, and Networks Alessandro de Cola (University of Vienna): Translating Values: Making Sense of African Demand for Glass Beads in East Africa (1850s-1890s) Louise Barré (Ghent University): Frozen Meat, Female Traders and the Cold Chain in Congo-Brazzaville (1979-2025) Femke de Nil (University of Ghent): Connecting the Local to the Global: Railway History as Premise and Method for Writing the Copperbelt's Global History
10.45-11.15	Coffee break	Coffee break
11.15-12.45	Panel: Histories and Legacies of Structural Adjustment Programs in Sub-Saharan Africa Alice Bellagamba (University of Milan-Bocca): Who was Pathe Bangura? Liberal Reforms and the Flourishing of Banditry in the South-Eastern Part of Senegal (1980s- 1990s) Felicitas Becker (Ghent University): The Layering of Different Versions of 'Progress' in Personal Styles and Careers: Still-Socialism and Post-Socialism in Tanzania Around 2000	Panel: Land, Cattle, and Commodification Elene Vernaeve (Ghent University): Cattle, Companies and the Countryside: A Multispecies Encounter in Twentieth Century Katanga, Democratic Republic of the Congo Paulo Matos (Ghent University): A Comparative Study of Colonial Strategies for the Commodification of Native Cattle in Angola and Mozambique (1917-1975) Kato Desaeveer (KU Leuven): Claiming the 'Vacant': Colonial Land Doctrine and Sovereignty in the Congo Free State (1885-1908)

	Joanna Da Sylva (Harvard University): Gendered Knowledge and Economic Survival: Senegalese Women's Responses to Structural Adjustment Policies David Glosvky (Harvard University): Innovation in the Face of Liberalization: Senegambians and the Making of Weekly Border Markets George Roberts (University of Sheffield): Money at the Apex of Structural Adjustment: Forgery, Foreign Exchange, and Fraud in Kenya
12.45-14.00	Lunch break	Lunch break
14.00-15.45	Roundtable: Capitalism in African Environmental History: Current Debates and Future Perspectives Benoît Henriët (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) Chanelle Adams (University of Lausanne) Iva Peša (University of Groningen) Jabulani Shaba (University of Groningen)	Panel: Intimate Partner and Domestic Violence in Africa up to the 1960s: Sources, Dynamics, and Representations Margaux Herman (INALCO; CESSMA): Domestic and Intrafamilial Violence in Ethiopian Societies in the First Half of the 19th Century Coralie Klipfel (INALCOC; CESSMA; ISJPS): The Selective Juridicisation of Domestic Spaces in Colonial Africa Julie Maestri (INED; IMAF; LPED; Aix-Marseille University): Violence against Girls and Women and the Consolata Catholic Missionaries in Central Kenya (1900-1960)
15.45-16.15	Coffee break	Coffee break
16.15-18.00	Panel: Aftermaths of Slavery in East Africa and Beyond: Recent Findings, Open Questions Enid Guéné (Ghent University): The Afterlives of Slavery: Conceptualisations of Labour and Foreignness in Twentieth Century Uganda Margot Luyckfasseel (University of Antwerp) &amp; Igor Matonda (Ghent University): Slavery and its Diverging Aftermaths in the Eastern DR Congo. Comparing Kisangani and Kasongo	Roundtable: Public and Private Savings in Post-War East Africa Niels Boender (University of Edinburgh): Debating Social Security in Late-Colonial Kenya Justin Willis (University of Durham): Saving for the Future: Provident Funds in 1960s Kenya

	Salvatory Nyanto (University of Dar es Salaam) &amp; Felicitas Becker (Ghent University): Shame, History, and Slave Antecedents: What Does it Mean that the Slave Past is ‘jambo la aibu’? Nives Kinunda (University of Dar es Salaam): Aftermath of Slavery and Women’s Proliferated Roles in Nurturing Children and Ownership of Rights: Southern Tanzania Life Histories Ngala Chome (Ghent University) &amp; Clélia Coret (CNRS): “From Slaves to Squatters”: Revisiting the Mazrui Lands Documentation	Christian Omar Velasco Reyes (Centro de Investigación y Docencia Económicas, Mexico City): From Cooperatives to Banks: African Saving Practices in Kenya, 1940s–1970s
18.00-19.00	Keynote lecture I Girma Negash (Addis Ababa University): A Social History of the Poor

Friday, June 19

8.30-9.00	Entrance hallway: Welcome coffee Grote Vergaderzaal	Entrance hallway: Welcome coffee Tapijtenzaal
9:00-10:45	Panel: Historicizing Objects of the Contact Zone: Methods, Challenges, and Concepts for Analyzing Congolese Drawings from the Interwar Period Diana Salakheddin (Royal Museum for Central Africa; Ghent University) Ophélie Laloy (Royal Library of Belgium; VUB) Bambie Ceuppens (Royal Museum for Central Africa) Michée Diansana (University of Kinshasa) Yvette Ikando (University of Kisangani; Ghent University)
10:45-11:15	Coffee break	Coffee break

11.15-12:45	Panel: Women and Politics of Liberation and Decolonization Mick Feyaerts (KU Leuven): Persecution or Opportunity? Female Religious, the Roman Catholic Church, and Mobutist Politics in Zaïre (1971-1978) Rose Ndengue (York University): Elisabeth Mendo and Rose Ndzie: Two Key Figures in Cameroon's Post-Independence Resistance Husseina Dinani (University of Toronto Scarborough): Women of the Colony: Rethinking Decolonization in Africa from the Perspectives of Rural Women in Lindi District, Southeastern Tanzania Michelle Liebst (University of Bonn) &amp; Saada Wahab (State University of Zanzibar): Women, Slavery, and Marriage in Twentieth Century Tanganyika	Panel: Faiths and Beliefs Éric Amoussou (Université Paris 1): Fondation Ecclésiastique et Fiscalité dans le Royaume Chrétien d'Éthiopie: Le Domaine Foncier de Dabra Berhan Sélassé (Fin XVIIe – XVIIIe Siècle) Lies Busselen (KU Leuven): Claiming the Ancestral: (Post)Colonial Necropolitics Philipp Hofmann (University of the Free State): Property-Owning Women and Religious Charity in Angola (c. 1760-1834) Adeyemi Akande (London Metropolitan University): Native MisUnderstanding of Freemasonry in the British Colony of Lagos, 1860-1960
12.45-14.00	Lunch break	Lunch break
14.00-15.30	Roundtable: Gendering African Labour: For a Social History of Female Labour in Africa Elena Vezzadini (CNRS) &amp; Karin Pallaver (University of Bologna): Introduction to the Panel: Women at Work: Reflecting on a Blind Spot in the History of African Labour Florence Wenzecq (University of Paris 1): Homemakers, Professionals or Self-employed Workers? Blurred Boundaries in Tanzanian Women's Experiences of Work (from the 1940s to the 2010s) Juliet Tiwaah Gyabeng (EHESS): "I Have Many Daughters, and I have Never Lacked Anything Because of Them": Ambiguity In Dressmaking Apprenticeship Relations in Kumasi	Panel: Courts, Laws, and Jurisprudence Olasunkanmi Victor Asaju (University of Ghana): African Litigants in Colonial Courts: Rethinking Legal Agency in Kabba Division Native Courts, Northern Nigeria 1904-1968 Chiedozie Obia (University of Exeter): "A Harm Not Grievous": State Responses to Sexual Violence in Late Colonial and Early Post-Colonial Nigeria, c.1950s-1990

	Domenico Cristofaro (University of Bologna): Working Ethics and Market Networks: Northern Ghanaian Traders and the Making of Urban Economies, 1920–1970
15.30-16.00	Coffee break	Coffee break
16.00-17.15	Panel: Perceptions, Sensations, and Emotions Didier Nativel (University of Paris Cité): Let's Talk about Atmospheres in African History! Pieter De Coene (Ghent University): The Intimate Vulnerability of Public Healing in East Africa's Great Lakes Region: A Long-Term Analysis of Kubandwa through Linguistic Historical Lenses	Panel: Science, Health, and Insects in the Colonies Zarah Cleve (Ghent University): Controlling Flies and Managing Landscapes: Veterinary Science and Tsetse in the Belgian Congo Hannah de Korte (KU Leuven): The Pathology of a Colonial Ideal: Insecticides, Sanitary Brigades and the Belgian 'Medical Model Colony'
17.15-18.30	Exciting Lecture in African History Vincent Hiribarren: African History, Digital Humanities and AI	